This is how the convention will work...

As a Registrant, you will receive an SMS message to your mobile phone just before the start time, with your unique Password.

Use that password to login into the Convention.

Once you login the page at the right will open and that is the Convention Lobby. (This Lobby page is being refined but it will look a bit like this only better)

You are then free to move about within the convention as you choose. You can replay any of the demonstrations and exhibitions in your own time up until 30 Oct, even though the convention officially ends on 16 Oct.

You can even just pour yourself a drink and go into the Chat Room to connect with any other delegates if you wish.

All very simple....

How the demonstrations will work...

- 1st Demo, by Shinji Suzuki starts on 8 Oct at 10am Perth West Australia time.
- Registrants login just prior to see the full demo. If login is say 10 minutes later, you will miss the first 10 minutes of his demo.
- 8 hours later you are free to access that same demo as a recording and view it as many times as you like until 30 Oct, with normal start/stop/rewind/freeze etc. functions.
- All other demo's operate the same way, i.e. login on time as advised in the Program to see the full demo on its first run and access it again at any time up until 30 Oct to view it as a recording.
- At the immediate completion of demo's by Shinji and Michael there will be live Q & A sessions that you can participate in.
- There will be a time clock showing times in different zones.

How the Exhibitions will work

- You will have a choice of Exhibitions to view, the main ones being the Bonsai and Suiseki in Australian and New Zealand Collections.
- We will have as many collection quality Australian and New Zealand Natives as Bonsai as we possibly can. This Exhibition will also include exotic species.
- The Suiseki Exhibition again will include as many quality stones native to both countries, as possible. Stones from other countries will also be included.

The WBFF Online Auction

This will be conducted outside of the convention so that anyone in the world can participate. All details will be provided later.

The Additional Activities

1. Making a rock pot using kiln slag with Veer Choudary.
2. Explaining the difference between everyday pots and better quality bonsai pots, by Marie Hewartson.
3. Shaping a Japanese Black Pine by Koji Hiramatsu.
4. Making a daiza by Lindsay Bebb.
5. A Virtual Reality Tour of the National Bonsai & Penjing Collection of Australia.
6. Ikebana demonstration of native species by Sogetsu Ikebana Perth.
7. Carving Demonstration by Will Baddeley.

and more to be added...

The Closing Ceremony

Attend this to find out the Host City for the next World Bonsai Convention and the new Chairman of WBFF.

How the Marketplace will work.....

There will be a variety of Marketplace Vendors at the Convention. All will have a Booth on the platform that links to their own shop site or Facebook page, so to see what any of the Traders have available to tempt you, go to the Lobby and access them through the Marketplace. They may be able to live chat with you or provide downloads like Catalogues or videos of their products, but each of them will guide you after you enter their Booth on the Event Site.
